Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On July 26, 1939, a girl child was born and christened Donna; and,

WHEREAS, Donna grew to womanhood in Kansas City, and went to school in Kansas; and,

WHEREAS, Donna married Larry Roggow, and they have been blessed with two children, setting the stage for, and attaining, the next major event in Donna's life--grandmother to the lights of her life, her three grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, Donna is employed at First Fidelity Bank in Burke, South Dakota, but her usefulness is drawing quickly to a close as she approaches the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

WHEREAS, Donna Roggow has reached her FIFTIETH birthday, an event which will end her trustworthiness and relegate her social life to rocking chairs and lap rugs; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota that Donna Roggow is just plain OLD:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 26, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Donna's many friends and relatives to mock her and rub it in, because she is now a member in good standing of the "Over-the-Hill Gang."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Sixth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
